To Whom It May Concern,

This letter of appreciation is sent with sincerity to Associate Roofing for their professionalism and quality workmanship.

Last year at this time I spent some time calling roofing contractors for an estimate on a new roof for my house. Three companies gave similar estimates. I went with a company out of Quincy. I quickly learned that I had made a big mistake. Within one week of completion, I had two leaks in the roof. The contractor failed to come out to my house in a timely manner to address the situation and I was forced to call other companies to evaluate the problem. This time I consulted the Yellow Pages instead of the newspaper.

All of the contractors that came and inspected the roof state that the installation was done improperly and would need to be stripped and redone!

I decided to hire Associate Roofing because of their references, and various documents provided to me including Insurance Verification and License information. I was particularly impressed with the professionalism of Wayne Newman. He took the time to document and itemize all the improper techniques used by the original roofer. Mr. Newman made me realize that there is indeed a right and a wrong way to install a roof. Mr. Newman was very helpful and I have recommended him to several friends since then.

Associate Roofing has a distinguished reputation and I am very pleased with our experience with them.

Sincerely,

Joseph Rabs
