Dear Mr. Lynch:

I want to take this opportunity to thank you and your company for doing an exemplary job on my roof.

The foreman, Wayne Newman, came down immediately upon receiving my request and left a package with letters of recommendation that boggled my mind. After the sheer horror I went through with the previous roofing contractor, I made certain I did my homework. I contacted as many people whose letters I had in my possession and asked them how they felt about your work years after writing the letters.

The responses I received were sufficient for me to make my decision to go with your company, and I'm quite glad I did.

Thank you
